Gift aid declaration - UK tax payers personal gifts

The Repton Foundation may claim gift aid on all my qualifying monetary gifts made:

This gift <input type="checkbox"/>	In the past four years <input type="checkbox"/>	In the future <input type="checkbox"/>
------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------

I am a UK taxpayer and understand that if I pay less income tax and/or capital gains tax in the current tax year than the amount of gift aid claimed on all my donations it is my responsibility to pay any difference. I understand that The Repton Foundation will claim 25p for every £1 I donate.

Please notify us if you; (1) want to cancel this declaration; (2) change your name or home address; (3) no longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains.

Thank you for your support

The small print: If you pay income tax at the higher or additional rate you may be able claim tax relief of 25p for every £1 you have donated. You must include all your gift aid donations on your self assessment tax return or ask HM Revenue and Customs to adjust your tax code. Data Protection: We are registered with the ICO ref. Z6051467 and hold and process personal information in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. We do not share your details with any third party organisation. Our full data protection values statement can be found on line or by contacting The Foundation office.
